DETAILED ACTION

Terminal Disclaimer

The terminal disclaimer filed on 12/14/2007 disclaiming the terminal portion of any patent granted on this application which would extend beyond the expiration date of prior patent 7,227,166 has been reviewed and is NOT accepted.

The terminal disclaimer does not comply with 37 CFR 1.321(b) and/or (c) because:

A) The assignee has not established its ownership interest in the patent, in order to support the terminal disclaimer. There is no submission in the record establishing the ownership interest by either (a) providing documentary evidence of a chain of title from the original inventor(s) to the assignee and a statement affirming that the documentary evidence of the chain of title from the original owner to the assignee was, or concurrently is being, submitted for recordation pursuant to 37 CFR 3.11, or (b) specifying (by reel and frame number) where such documentary evidence is recorded in the Office (37 CFR 3.73(b)). Furthermore, the records of Office show a different assignee for the patent than that of the application.

B) An attorney or agent, not of record, is not authorized to sign a terminal disclaimer in the capacity as an attorney or agent acting in a representative capacity as provided by 37 CFR 1.34 (a). See 37 CFR 1.321(b) and/or (c). In this case, the attorney who signed the disclaimer is not listed as an attorney of record.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1-27 stand rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-23 of U.S. Patent No. 7,227,166. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because:

Regarding claims 1, 9, and 19, the "chime" as claimed in patent claims 1 and 9, and 19 anticipates the "surface of the metal container" in the application because the chime is part of the surface.

Regarding claims 2 and 12, it would have been obvious to include an orientation code and a pattern code in the recited "code" because these codes are well known in optically read codes, such as bar codes; the type of code used would depend upon many design parameters and the desired information; many such codes are known in the prior art—the bit length of such a code would depend upon the amount of information to be provided. Therefore, the type and length of the code and information to be provided would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art.

Regarding claims 3, 14, and 23 it would have been obvious to stamp the code on a base region since it is notoriously old in the container arts to print or stamp a code on the base since this would interfere less with the label areas.

Regarding claims 4 and 5, since metal cans are notoriously old metal containers, it would have been obvious to adapt the system to accommodate a code on the base of such a can; which comprises a dome circumscribed by a circle of approximately the recited diameter.

Regarding claims 6-10, 13, 15-18, 20-21, 22, and 24-27 these claims recite the same subject matter as claims 4-8, 11, 12-15, 18, 25, 19, and 20-23, respectively, of the patent and are thus render the claims obvious for the same reasons as the independent claims from which they depend.

Conclusion

The terminal disclaimer is not acceptable for the reasons given above, and therefore the obvious-type double patenting rejection is maintained. The rejections under 35 USC 112 are withdrawn in view of applicant's amendments filed on 12/14/2007.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
